LOCAL MATTERS.

Sun and Tide Table.

Sun rises tomorrow at 6:33 a. m. and sets at 5:15 p. m. High water at 8:07 a. m. and sets 8:24 p. m.

Weather Probabilities.

For this section fair tonight. Wednesday partly cloudy; not much change in temperature; northerly winds, increasing Wednesday.

CIVIC IMPROVEMENT LEAGUE.

The annual meeting for the election of officers of the Alexandria Civic Improvement League was held last night at the rooms of the Chamber of Commerce, the following officers being elected: President, C. S. T. Burke; vice presidents, the Mayor of Alexandria, Messrs. E. S. Leadbeater, A. D. Brockett, R. E. Knight, Mrs. E. Washington Howard, Misses Fanny Herbert, and Helen Cummings; treasurer, Arthur Herbert; recording secretary, J. Y. Williams; corresponding secretary, Mrs. J. M. Johnson.

In the absence from the city of the newly elected president, the auditor, Mr. R. S. Jones, and the chairman of the various committees remain as they are: Reception, Dr. Wm. M. Smith; streets, Miss Mary Carlin; schools, Miss Constance Boush; membership, Mrs. Fred Puff; press, Miss Rose M. MacDonald.

The committee having in charge the arrangements for the public meeting, at which the prizes will be awarded for yards, reported that the plans for the meeting were not yet perfected, the date, however, will be announced shortly. The league feels much gratified at the growing interest which is taken in this phase of its work.

During the coming winter, special effort will be made by the school committee to arouse in the children a spirit of interest in the trash boxes; several of these have been mutilated, two at least by a match being thrown in and setting fire to the paper. The children of the town generally have resented these acts of vandalism and the league feels that in them they shall find most enthusiastic helpers in keeping the boxes in good condition when they are repainted, as they will be shortly.

DEATH OF MR. W. H. BLACKFORD.

William H. Blackford, president of the Maryland Life Insurance Company, died at his home in Baltimore yesterday, aged 69 years. Mr. Blackford was born in Lynchburg, December 27, 1841, and there spent his boyhood. He served in the Confederate army throughout the war between the states. Thirty-one years ago he became associated with the Maryland Life Insurance Company and became president of that company November 21, 1887. He was a director in the Mercantile Trust Company, the Eutaw Savings Bank, the Cumberland and Pennsylvania Railroad, and the Parkersburg branch of the Baltimore and Ohio Railroad Company. He was a member of the board of governors of the Maryland Club and a member of the Baltimore County Club. A wife who was Mrs. James Potter, formerly Miss Ann Steenbergen, of Virginia, and a son, William S. Blackford, Jr., survive him. He is a near relative of Dr. L. M. Blackford, principal of the Episcopal Theological Seminary near this city.

SCHOOL SHIP COMING.

The schoolship Presidente Sarmento, of the Argentine navy, will pass this city on her way to Washington next Sunday. She is to be anchored in the Potomac for several days, probably departing about the middle of next week. The schoolship is on a cruise along the eastern coast of the United States, and has put in at a number of ports. While lying off Washington the vessel is to be visited by President Taft and a number of officers of the United States army and navy, and probably the secretary of state and officials of the state and other departments. The officers of the ship have made arrangements for a reception on board to the president and the other officials.

SENT TO THE WORK HOUSE.

Officers Sampson and Talbot yesterday arrested a white man named Lewis Vaughn on the charge of vagrancy. He was brought before the Police Court this morning when evidence was produced to show that Vaughn had been engaged in begging clothing from different people, alleging that he was too scantily attired for the season. He succeeded in obtaining a number of garments, mostly underclothing, which he immediately disposed of, spending the proceeds in whisky. It was alleged that he sold a bundle of clothing for five cents. Justice Caton sent him to the work house for 60 days.

FUGITIVES CAPTURED.

Two white men who had escaped from the workhouse at Occoquan lake yesterday evening were arrested at ten minutes past five o'clock this morning by former Policeman Gilbert Sampson, at the northern end of Hunting creek bridge. Mr. Sampson drew a pistol on the fugitives and ordered them to walk ahead of him. He later turned the men over to Marshal Anderson, who was engaged in searching for them. The prisoners, after having been handcuffed by the marshal, exhausted their vocabulary of cuss words on Mr. Sampson.

FINED TWENTY DOLLARS.

Among the prisoners before the Police Court this morning was a Georgetown negro named Vaughn. He was taken in custody last night in the northwestern section of the city by Officers Nicholson and Arrington. Upon being searched a razor minus a handle was found in one of his pockets. The darkey said he used the blade to cut his finger nails, and was allowed the privilege in Georgetown. Justice Caton fined him $20.

WILL PROBATED.

The will of the late Mrs. Sallie Yates McDaniel was admitted to probate today in the office of the Clerk of the Circuit Court. The deceased left her estate to her brothers and sisters, and Jennie Y. Summers and Olivia W. Evans were named as executrices and qualified as such today.

THE GAME LAWS.

Hunters who are counting the hours when they can go to the fields and begin to bag partridges and rabbits will have to wait until November 1. That is the law, though some have the idea that the season opens October 15.

Major L. T. Christian, of Richmond, secretary of the Game Protective Association, of Virginia, is devoting much time to seeing that the laws of the state are rigidly enforced.

Under the laws of the state it is unlawful to shoot or trap any of the following at any time: Mockingbirds, thrush, woodpecker, yellowhammer, redbird, meadow lark, night hawk (or bat), whippoorwill, gull, crane, vulture or buzzard.

Quail and waterfowl cannot be trapped at any time, and the hunting of birds and muskrats at night is prohibited, and no gun with a larger than 8-bore is permitted. No hunting can be done earlier than half an hour before sunrise or later than half an hour after sunset, and all hunting on Sunday is forbidden.

Robins, grouse, pheasants, quail, partridges and woodcock are not to be bought or sold from November 1 to February 1 east of the Blue Ridge mountains, and from November 1 to December 31 west of the Blue Ridge mountains.

Deer can be hunted from September 1 to December 1.

Robins from February 15 to April 1. Hares (rabbits) from November 1 to February 1.

Non residents can get license to hunt in Virginia on the payment of a fee of $10, and they are allowed to take out of the state, when exposed to view and tagged with the name of the owner, 30 waterfowl, 50 quail, 10 pheasants, 3 turkeys, 1 deer, 25 wildcat, an aggregate of 100 if killed by the possessor. Under no circumstances can game of any kind be shipped by either freight or express.

Game wardens have been instructed to keep a close watch for all violators of the law. The wardens are vested with power to make arrests without a warrant when they are convinced that the law has been violated by any person and interference with the officer means a fine of from $5 to $10.

The game laws of the state are now being codified by Col. B. O. James, secretary of the commonwealth, and will be ready for distribution within ten days—certainly before the end of the month and in ample time for the Nimrod to get their traps and guns and ammunition ready.

GUESTS OF MR. TAYLOR.

As guests of Mr. Warren P. Taylor, traffic manager of the Washington Southern Railway, Messrs. C. P. Cox, auditor of the Washington Southern; Ashby Taylor, general manager southern car association; Mr. Potts, auditor of the C. and O.; Mr. W. T. Duke, assistant to the president of the W.-S. road; Mr. Teller and many other friends from Richmond and Washington, took a week's trip, starting yesterday on the steamer Capital City, which left here for Jackson Creek and other well known oyster places. The president of the Board of Aldermen, Mr. F. F. Marbury, formerly of the Southern Railway, was expected to be among the guests, but his duties as acting mayor of the city prevented his acceptance of the invitation. They will make their headquarters at Nominini Hotel, in Nominini river.

POLICE COURT.

[Justice H. B. Caton presiding.]

The following cases were disposed of this morning:

Lewis Vaughn, charged with vagrancy, was sent to the work house for 60 days.

Grant Vaughn, colored, charged with carrying concealed weapons, was fined $20.

Bessie Marshall, colored, charged with disorderly conduct, was dismissed.

James McCain, colored, charged with killing a mule belonging to Thomas Arrington, colored, was held for the grand jury.

SENT TO THE GRAND JURY.

James McCain, colored, who was arrested yesterday by Officers Nicholson and Roland on suspicion of killing a mule belonging to Thomas Arrington, colored, in the northwestern section of the city, was brought before the Police Court this morning. It was alleged that McCain, who had had some previous difficulty with Arrington, had threatened to get even with him, and blood was traced from a point near McCain's home to the spot where the mule died to death. A sharp knife was found on McCain. After the evidence of several witnesses had been secured by which strong circumstantial evidence against the suspect was obtained, Justice Caton sent McCain to the grand jury.

A. L. I.

At the regular weekly drill of the Alexandria Light Infantry last night, it was decided to make the proposed visit to Leesburg on Monday, October 23rd, if this date should meet with the approval of the officers of the new company there when they come to the guests of the Alexandria Light Infantry next Monday evening. The purpose of the visit to Leesburg is to give an exhibition drill for the new company there which is soon to be mustered into the service as Company H, First Regiment, and will be assigned to the second battalion, commanded by Major Jas. E. King, of which battalion the A. L. I. is a part.

FUNERAL.

The funeral of the late Mrs. John Sutton, who died Sunday, took place this afternoon from the residence, 1007 Gibbon street. The services were conducted by Rev. Edgar Carpenter, and the interment was made in Union cemetery.

NEW OPERA HOUSE.

Owing to the oriental dances last night not being up to the standard set by the management of the Opera House, this act has been withdrawn. Tonight the act will be replaced by an operatic singing act. The rest of the bill is considered excellent.

MERGER OF ROADS APPROVED.

The State Corporation Commission yesterday entered an order permitting the merger of the Washington, Alexandria and Mount Vernon Railway Company and the Washington, Arlington and Falls Church Railway Company as the Washington-Virginia Railway Company. The maximum capital stock of the consolidated corporation is to be $5,000,000, and the minimum $500,000, with a par value in shares of $100 each. The formal merger of the lines had already been anticipated by action taken at stockholders' meetings of the two companies recently. The Washington, Alexandria and Mount Vernon Railway held a ninety-nine year lease on the property of the Washington, Arlington and Falls Church line, so that there will be no change in the present control and operation.

Report has had it for some time that these consolidations were the result of control by the Gould interests of both lines, and that eventual connection with the water power rights owned by the Goulds at Fredericksburg, and with the Richmond and Chesapeake Bay Railway at Ashland was contemplated. The papers filed, however, do not show any such plan, nor have the attorneys usually associated with the Gould interests in Virginia taken part in the proceedings, which are declared to be entirely in the interests of Washington parties owning the two suburban electric lines, one running to Mount Vernon, the home of Washington, and the other to Arlington, the home of Lee.—[Richmond Times Dispatch.]

PERSONAL.

Mr. Joel M. Cochran, of Charlottesville, was in the city this morning on his way to Baltimore. He speaks in glowing terms of Charlottesville's future as one of the coming cities of the state, but there are others. Alexandria wishes her sister city all the success possible.

Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Fenwick have returned from a pleasant ten weeks visit to the Blue Ridge mountains.

Mrs. Starnell, who has been the guest of relatives in this city, has returned to her home in Alexandria. Mr. John Cox, who has been the guest of friends in this city, has returned to his home in Alexandria.—[Fredericksburg Journal.]

Mr. and Mrs. James Edward Madden have returned from their wedding trip. They are residing in Washington. Col. and Mrs. J. A. de Lazear, now of Washington, were among the visitors in this city today.

Mrs. M. E. Howard, of Charlottesville and Mrs. Shell, superintendent of the Salisbury Md. Hospital, are guests of Mrs. M. Adamson at her home, No. 224 South Washington street.

LOCAL BRIEVITIES.

The Reliance Steam Fire Engine Company will meet tonight.

No business of general importance was transacted at the meeting of Alexandria Lodge of Elks last night.

The regular monthly meeting of the Board of Police Commissioners will be held tomorrow night.

The Wednesday Night Assembly will give a dance at the new Elks' Hall tomorrow night.

Mr. John Riley, who held ticket No. 93, drew the picture which was disposed of last night by the Alexandria Brass Band.

Alexandria Council, Order Fraternal Americans, after the initiation of several candidates last night, repaired to the cafe of Mr. James Magner and heartily enjoyed one of Jim's famous oyster suppers.

Capt. Johnson, of the bugery Emma, which is lying at King street wharf, has a small jag of those celebrated Jackson Creek oysters, the finest which comes to the market.

M. T. Dwyer has sold to Jas. B. Williams a house and lot on the west side of Patrick street between Queen and Princess.

Toots Olden, colored, who was sent to the penitentiary some time ago for holding up and robbing a man on north Washington street, has served out his time and returned to his home in this city.

There was a large attendance at the Jewish Synagogue on north Washington street last night, when services appropriate to the Feast of Tabernacles were held. They were conducted by Mr. B. Weil.

The special grand jury for the Corporation Court will meet at 9 o'clock tomorrow morning and the trial of the cases will begin at 10 o'clock.

A meeting of those interested in the purchase and development of the land at the corner of Cameron and West streets will be held tonight at eight o'clock at the rooms of the Chamber of Commerce. A number of prominent business men are interested and will be present.

Skating Rink open tonight—basketball game postponed.

This daily bunch of talk we're handing to you, comes straight from our hearts! Believe us, we know what we're talking about. Such a phrase as this: "The quality of our products bit the 'right place,'" our prices are always on the "dead level," can't help from ringing true. If you don't happen to be "wise," just step around to Blooming's Auto Store or Market tomorrow and get "help" to our arguments. Take it from us, friend, we know!

HORSE AND BUGGY FOUND.

A horse and buggy which had been taken from a stable in Washington was found by Mr. George Cogan, watchman at the postoffice and custom house, at the intersection of Prince and St. Asaph streets at 6 o'clock this morning. He notified Lieutenant Bettis at the station house and Officer Rawlett was sent to take charge of the horse and buggy. They were taken to a livery stable to await the appearance of the owner. Ernest O'Connell, accompanied by Detective Vermillion, came here later from Washington and claimed the horse and buggy, which were taken back to the place from which they came.

Our medium prices of stylish up-to-date "footwear" is ready for your inspection. New ideas, stylish designs, best workmanship, and best materials. Shoes made right here, by their shape. A few of the makers; Taylor Made, The Hess, Regal, Walk Over, Brockton Company Operative, Red Cross, Queen Quality, J. and T. Cousins, Lindner Shoe Company, Clement Ball Shoe Company and many others. Agents for Gold Seal and Boots. J. A. Marshall & Co., 422 King street. Up-to-date footwear.

CIRCUIT COURT FOR THE COUNTY

[Judge J. B. T. Thornton, presiding.]

Mr. W. L. Bowen has been appointed deputy clerk.

The grand jury yesterday returned true bills to the following indictments: Ruben Ware, Henry Proctor, Henry Cheetham, Isaac Burrell, Ora Johnson, Ben Harris, Ben Coleman and Robert Jackson, all colored, for felonies.

Ware and Proctor plead guilty and were sentenced to serve one year each in the penitentiary.

The court has been occupied today in hearing the case of Mason Smith, colored, on the charge of grand larceny.

THE EUCHE LAST NIGHT.

The euche and entertainment given last night at the Young Men's Sodality Lyceum Hall under the auspices of that organization was largely attended. Thirty prizes were awarded. The first gentleman's prize was won by Mr. William Thaler, of Washington, and the first lady's prize by Mrs. B. Weil.

HOFBRAU BEER

A Table Beverage

There is something more to be considered in providing a meal than merely supplying nutrition. The social feature should be remembered. Meal times should always be period of social, as well as physical enjoyment.

Hofbrau Beer is a splendid table beverage for the reason that it promotes sociability. It is an exhilarant. It clears the cobwebs from the brain and lifts one up to the plane of good nature, propriety and digestion-aiding quality.
